

Essex Primary Headteachers' meetings Autumn Term 2016 AGENDA

NORTH EAST: Wednesday 9 November Weston Homes Stadium, Colchester

Bill Lucas will explore the ways in which schools can rethink the ways they engage parents to focus on creating more capable learners. Bill Lucas is an internationally acclaimed thought leader, researcher, speaker and author. His recent book with Guy Claxton, "Educating Ruby - what our children really need to learn", has opened up a new conversation with parents and teachers. He has written extensively about parental engagement including Engaging parents: why and how for SSAT. The interactive session will share both research evidence and promising practices. 3. MarvellousMe Adrian Burt MarvellousMe helps teachers let parents know what their children do at school. "Working with pupils who present challenging behaviour" Steve Phillips A session focusing on sharing ideas, strategies and support to improve pupil behaviour and staff self-esteem. You are welcome to invite a member of staff from your school to attend this session, if you feel it would be beneficial. Steve is a qualified science teacher, who for the last fourteen years has worked in PRUs. During this time he has been a "data driven" Headteacher, a behaviour "Enforcer" and a "miracle question" obsessed mentor. He is currently Deputy Head of The Children's Support Service and leads their Early Intervention Team which supports mainstreams schools across Essex to work effectively with challenging behaviour.	2.
