7.	Ros Blackburn: “Logically Illogical – Information and Insight into Autism” Ros Blackburn is an adult with autism. At three months old she appeared withdrawn, isolated and very much in a world of her own. At 18 months she was diagnosed very severely autistic but with average intellectual ability. Now at 49, Ros lectures nationally and internationally, giving insight into her own experiences and the care and education practices she has observed. In this workshop, Ros explores with humour and passion the “mistakes” from which she has had to learn and some of her coping strategies. From these she is able to offer helpful strategies – including what not to do – when understanding and managing autism in mainstream schools. It is Ros’ wish that all those who attend her talks find them helpful and informative but, above all, that the experience is entertaining and full of fun.	11.40 – 12.50
	Close of EPHA meeting LUNCH	12.50 – 13.30

	Safeguarding Forum meeting In the afternoon Jo Barclay will run the termly safeguarding forum meeting – headteachers are very welcome to stay on and attend, and other staff from schools across the area will join the meeting. If you plan to attend, please make sure you have booked a place via the Infolink https://schools-secure.essex.gov.uk/pupils/Safeguarding/Pages/Safeguarding.aspx	13.30 – 16.30
