

Character Celebrations - Dot and Narina

Dot celebrates lots of things. One of the celebrations is Christmas. She attends church services which involve prayers and singing carols. Christmas is celebrated on the 25th of December each year. Dot starts Christmas Day wearing a smart dress at a midnight service, called Midnight Mass. Dot gives and receives presents and cards. This reminds her of the gift of Jesus, who was born on this day, beginning his earthly life.

What is similar about both celebrations?

What is different about both celebrations?

Narina, like Dot, takes part in lots of different celebrations throughout the year. One of the celebrations she really likes is celebrating her birthday. She has family and friends gathering at her home each year to celebrate the day she was born. Narina recognises her birthday by receiving presents and cards. She wears her smartest clothes and her mum always ensures she wears a special necklace that was gifted to her when she was born.

10.01.22 PSHE LI: I can compare two different religions

Draw a picture and label how each of the characters celebrated their celebrations. .

